

St. Nicholas Church (Ivanhoe) fonds. - 1926 - 1964. - 4 cm textual records

Administrative history

Ivanhoe and Traytown are two resettled community on the island of Ireland's Eye in Trinity Bay, in the Parish of Trinity. A meeting of the residents was held May 1, 1926, respecting the erection of a church for their communities. Those present voted to have a church "central between Ivanhoe and Traytown". Permission was granted by the Diocesan Synod and the site across the road from the school was selected. Plans were drawn up by the Rector of the Parish, Rev. E. P. Hiscock, and approved by Synod. The church was completed by June 1929, and consecrated later that year. The communities were resettled under the provincial government program in the 1960s. The final recorded congregational meeting was held in 1964. There was no reference to the impending closing of the church, but the lay reader, Mr. Cecil King referred to people "going away from the place they once loved so dearly". By 1966 the resettlement of the community was complete.
