

Trinity Historical Society – The Loyal Trinity Volunteer Ranger Award

The Trinity Historical Society preserves, presents and promotes the records, manuscripts, and buildings of enduring architectural value, related to the history of Trinity (and Trinity Bight) and its citizens.

The Loyal Trinity Volunteer Ranger Award (LTVRA) is an annual award recognizing a person, past or present, who has demonstrated a commitment to the preservation, presentation and promotion of our collective heritage.

The award is named after the Loyal Trinity Volunteer Rangers who were formed during the War of 1812 under the command of William Kelson to defend Trinity Harbour and the nearby communities. Many of the restored armaments found at Fort Point were due to this effort and fort reactivation.
