Trinity Historical Society
Newsletter, Issue 42

The Memorial Day Ceremony in St. Paul's Churchyard was attended by about 100 people. The Ceremony was very moving.

Trinity Historical Society's Summer Seminar Series is ongoing. The next seminar entitled "Tall but True Tales from the Road" will be presented by Tom Kennedy on July 25th. Please see our website and The Trinity Bight Enterprise for more details.

In this edition of our Newsletter, we present the story of the fourth of the men who are remembered on the War Monument in Port Rexton.
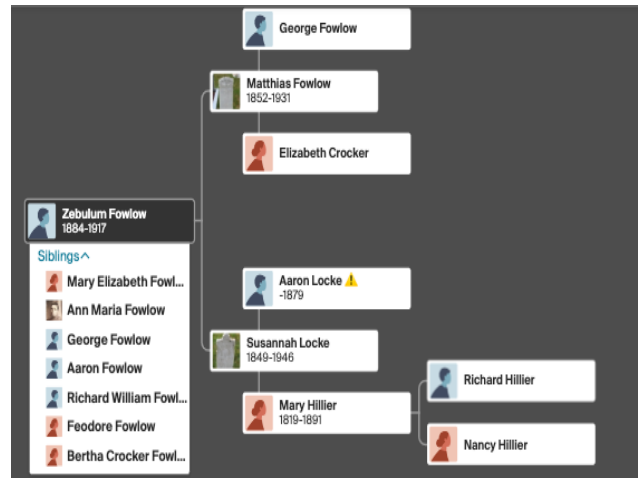

As always, the THS welcomes application for membership from anyone interested in the objectives and activities of the Society.
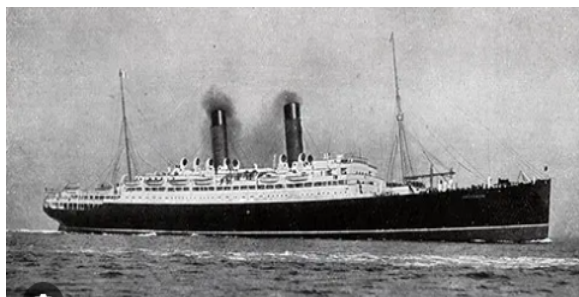

_____

Zebulon Fowlow

Zebulon Fowlow, the son of Mathias Fowlow and Susannah Locke, was born at Pease Cove on July 30th, 1884. He enlisted in the Newfoundland Royal Navy Reserves on March 20th, 1903. He drowned accidentally on February 22nd, 1917. He was 32.
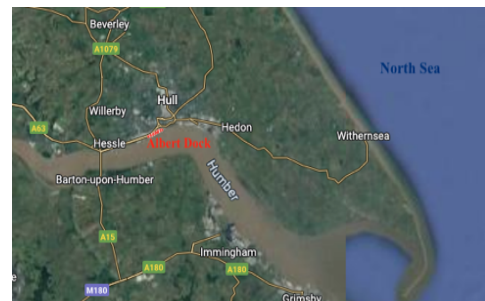

Family Tree

Zebulon was called to active duty in November 1915 and sailed overseas on-board the Cunard liner, Franconia. He served at naval bases Pembroke, Warfire, and President III before being assigned to SS Kilpano on January 31st, 1917. While returning to his ship on the night of February 22nd, 1917, Zebulon accidently fell into Albert Dock at Hull and drowned. He was buried with naval honours at Western Cemetery, Hull, England.

RMS Franconia

Death Location